Biographical INFO

STEPHEN “BUTCH” WHITEHEAD

Board Director
DAV National Service Foundation (NSF)

Stephen “Butch” Whitehead, a combat-disabled veteran of the Iraq War, was elected national commander for the more than 1 million-member DAV at the organization's 2019 national convention in Orlando, Florida.

A native of Trimont, Minnesota, Whitehead is a retired command sergeant major for the 84th Troop Command Brigade in the Minnesota Army National Guard.

Whitehead joined the Army in 1991 and completed two overseas deployments, receiving the Bronze Star in 2007 for combat service in Iraq. In 2012, he was awarded the Veterans Voices Award by then-Gov. Mark Dayton of Minnesota. Other military awards include a Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, five Army Achievement Medals, the Iraq Campaign Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Medal and the Humanitarian Service Medal.

Currently, Whitehead serves as executive director of the Disabled American Veterans of Minnesota Foundation. He has served as adjutant for the DAV Department of Minnesota and is chair for multiple department-level committees. He was also recently appointed to the Minneapolis Veterans Affairs Medical Center Consumer Advisory Board, where he will serve for three years.

He earned a bachelor's degree in business from the University of Phoenix in 2009.

In November 2019, Whitehead rejoined the military assuming responsibility as the command sergeant major of the Army National Guard's 34th Infantry Division.

Whitehead and his spouse, Kim, live in Rosemount, Minnesota. He is a life member of Chapter 10 in Mankato, Minnesota.
